

Comparative Chart of Facts & Impressions about Colleges

Name of College:
Type (e.g., 4-year liberal arts, 2-year community college, etc):
Test(s) required:
Score report(s) due:
Application deadline:
Total annual expenses:
Amount of financial aid available:
Undergraduate Enrollment: Women: Men:
Freshman class- Number that applied: Number that were Accepted: Number that enrolled:
Number of credits required to graduate:

Comparative Chart of Facts & Impressions about Colleges

Name of College:
Average class size:
When must you declare a major?
Are there programs for study abroad?
Are there work-study/internship programs?
Do top-ranking faculty members teach undergraduate classes?
How would you rate the school's overall academic reputation (high, average, low)?
How would you rate the school's library facilities (good average, poor)?
Would you feel challenged and stimulated by the intellectual climate of the school?
Location/ setting (e.g., rural, small town, big city):

Comparative Chart of Facts & Impressions about Colleges

Name of College:
Is the environment appealing to you?
How are the dorms organized (e.g., same sex, coed)?
Are the dorms convenient To dinning facilities?
Is there a choice of food plans?
How would you rate the recreational facilities and activities (extensive, adequate, limited)?
Do the school's extracurricular organizations interest you?
Do you think you would enjoy the school's social life?
What kind of counseling is available (e.g., personal, career, academic)?
Is there a job placement service?
Attrition rate: Freshman: End of senior year:

